LEMON GROVE REVIEW

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

A guy got himself stirred up just nosing around. That's what happened to me last week when I asked what I thought to be a sensible question of one of the supply men for the local school district. He was driving the district's station wagon loaded with books.

"Pop", I said, "where are you going with all those books?"

Pop is Lt. Comdr. James Yeo, USN, (ret), who works for the school. He and I are fellow service club members and lunch together at the Kiwanis club frequently.

"We're taking 'em to the dump for burning," he answered. "Oh ho, "I said aloud. Book burning in this day of enlightenment?" "Them's my orders and I'm taking them to the dump to burn 'em," he repeated.

I counted the boxes in the truck. There were 25. There were more than 50 books in each box . . . 2,500 books in all and this was his second load!

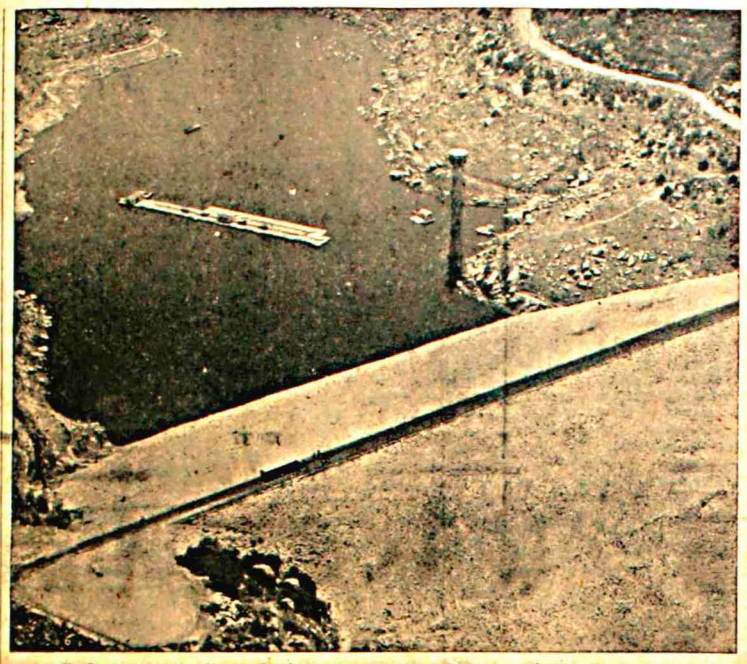

I checked with the county school superintendent's office and they recited me law, section and chapter by which destruction of school textbooks could be accomplished. For our more legal-minded readers it's in Section 45, Rules and Regulations, State Board of Education Code.

Using the same type of arithmetic they taught in some of the doomed books, I multiplied 2,500 books by approximately 5,000 schools in California and arrived at the astounding total of 12½ million textbooks. It certainly costs $3 a copy to print those books and that represents more than $37 millions.

I talked to S. K. Solleder, assistant school superintendent and he said that such destruction would become more frquent in the future. It used to be, Solleder said, that books were replaced every six to eight years. As of this year, the time has been cut to four to six years. Outmoded, they say, as if you can outmode two-plus-two being anything but four.

I had taken four of the books

El Capitan reservoir, its intake tower showing starkly above the water line, is down to one of its lowest points in recent years. This picture was taken June 7 when the reservoir contained only 2,815 acre feet. Its capacity is 112,806 acre feet. El Capitan holds no Colorado River water but is used as a joint storage facility for the Helix Irrigation district and the City of San Diego. More water from the Colorado River can only be brought to San Diego County now through a second aqueduct which will be voted on by County Water Authority electors at a special election July 9.

WATER EMERGENCY ON IN HELIX DISTRICT

Water shortage isn't around the corner . . . it's here!

Helix Irrigation District directors revealed Tuesday that Eucalyptus Reservoir has run nearly dry during this week's high temperatures and that low pressure was suffered in most areas creating an emergency. This condition will continue until the Grossmont Reservoir is put back into operation in July so that San Diego aqueduct water may be stored during 'under-peak hours.

Residents are asked to use water only for necessary purposes until the weather moderates.

LESS THAN 4% VOTE ON $1½ MILLION ISSUE

The Grossmont Hospital District last week, by a wide margin, won the election to allow them to spend $437,500.00 now in the treasury, on more beds, additions on buildings, alterations and furniture.

Out of a possible 50,000 registered voters in the District there were only 2,496 votes cast; less than 4%.

Here is the way the voting went in the Spring Valley area: at 9268 Campo Road, 32 "Yes" and 6 "No"; Spring Valley Elementary School, 25 "Yes" and 3 "No"; Spring Valley Community Center, 33 "Yes" and 11 "No"; at Spinnazzola home on Jamacha Road, 27 "Yes" and 5 "No"; Casa de Oro School, 21 "Yes" and 5 "No"; Steurman home on Del Rio Road, 38 "Yes" and 1 "No." Lemon Grovans voted for the issue 237 to 47.

Lewis Peelyon, Administrator of the Grossmont Hospital, said that although the victory was won last Tuesday, that does not necessarily mean that the hospital can get necessary federal and state aid of $1,200,000, of which they seek. He did say however that the victory raised the chances of getting aid considerably, putting the hospital in seventh place priority. If appropriations are cut, he added, that will lessen the chances of aid. There are many other hospitals throughout the state that are not eligible for federal and state aid.

Norma Lee Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Taylor, 7815 Barton Drive became the bride of Jarold James Jay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Jay, Sr., 2330 Hopkins Drive, San Diego, Friday.

The ceremony was held at Skyline Weslyan Methodist Church with the sister of the bride, Miss Alice Ann Taylor as Maid of Honor and the brother of the bridegroom, Jack Jay, Jr., as Best Man.

County Development Group Meets Friday

Miles Nagel will be speaker Friday at the Lemon Grove meeting of the County Committee For Metropolitan Government.

Meeting will be held at 7 p.m. at the Dinner Bell Cafe on Broadway. The Committee is a splinter of the San Diego County Development Committee.

Nagel said that all persons interested in consolidating county services and saving tax money are invited to attend.

By DICK. HENDERSON

I was one of some 28 people connected with newspapers and magazines published in San Diego County to accept Mayor Charles Dail's invitation to tour the southern part of the county on an all-day "water" trip.

I have lived in San Diego for for seventy years, since 1886, and all those past years water has been the chief concern of officials and citizens alike.

The first place that was chosen to get water for the city was a well, at Old Town, with a steam pump to lift the water to a reservoir on the slope of Presidio Hill. And the same river bed supplied water about 1900, after the San Diego Flume Co., which became San Diego Water Co., headed by E. S. Babcock, and later financed by John D. Spreckels, battled for years, until the city bought 'em both and combined them. The Mountain Water Co. put in a small delivery system, paralleling the already installed system on several streets, notably Market (then H street).

Water was searce in those

TWO AREA AUTOISTS HURT IN 3 CAR CRASH

Richard Voake 16, of 4687 Jessie Street, La Mesa, and Mrs. L. D. (Vivian) Lawton, 2935 Central, Spring Valley, were taken to Grossmont Hospital last Friday morning, following a three car wreck on 94 Freeway, between 47th Street and Home Ave.

According to officer G. H. Martindale of the San Diego Police Dept., Voake was driving east and either fell asleep or "blacked out". His 1953 Chevvy crossed the center dividing strip, knocking down three road edge markers and went head-on into Mrs. Lawton's 1957 Plymouth and then into the car following, driven by her husband, Capt. L. D. Lawton of the Spring Valley Fire Department. Lawton was uninjured, probably because his car was equipped with safety belts. The other two cars were not equipped with the belts.

MUSIC PARENTS IN SPECIAL MEET

Mt. Miguel Music Parents Club will hold a special meeting June 20, at 7:30 p.m., at the Spring Valley Jr. Hi Music Room. A report on the calendar sales will be given. If you failed to make contact with a student, to purchase a listing or a calendar, please contact Mr. Gale at HO 6-1776. You can still order your calendar and benefit yourself and the Uniform Fund.

Plans for the fall term will be made, so it is important that all members of the Music Club be present.

HELP COMES TO SCHOOL DISTRICT IN FINAL GASP OF LEGISLATURE

Children of the Lemon Grove School District will enjoy a fuller educational program next year as a result of the school apportionment bill passed in the closing days of the California Legislature. According to Mrs. Margaret Lemmer, local teacher who acted on behalf of the legislation here and in Sacramento, the elementary district of Lemon Grove will receive approximately $112,000 more each year in State money for the operation of schools.

The original bill (AB 3045, Geddes) sponsored by the California Teachers Association would have allowed an additional $150,000. It also would have allowed an additional $15 per child in the large city districts of the state. When it became apparent that no additional taxes could be passed at this session, the Senate came up with a modified version of the bill, slightly reducing these amounts to be received by "impoverished" districts but cutting to one-third the amounts originally proposed for "rich" districts.

Despite last-minute attempts by some members of the Los Angeles delegation in the Assembly to kill the entire bill, it passed both Houses of the Legislature, and Governor Knight indicated he will sign it, barring no technical errors in its drafting. Mrs. Lemmer said that the new program, operative for two years, will be financed from the general fund which includes State money in the Teachers Retirement Fund and the School Bond Retirement Fund. These last two funds were set aside by the Legislature in 1943 when a surplus existed in the General Fund, but they were not designated as "special" funds and so can be used at any time for any necessary expenditures.

Mrs. Lemmer, at the request of the California Teachers Association, spent the last two weeks of the session in Sacramento in CTA's all-out attempt to secure additional funds for districts such as Lemon Grove. Her total expenses, including substitute, were paid for by the San Diego County Teachers Association and the Association of San Diego County School Administrators, and there was no expense to the Lemon Grove District.

SCHOOL BOARD TO SIT ON 'ESPE AFFAIR'

Further consideration of the budget will be the main item of business before the Lemon Grove School Board Monday evening, 7:30, at the Education Center on Lincoln Street. This will include the adoption of a salary schedule for administrators.

If Monday evening does not allow sufficient time for the budget items, the board will meet again the following evening, and Wednesday evening if necessary, to complete the business of budget adoption.

A legislative report by Mrs. Margaret Lemmer is also scheduled. She will tell of increased funds secured through the efforts of the California Teachers Association. These include the apportionment bill and SB 224 (Dilworth) which, if signed by the governor, could reduce the tax rate for State loan repayment and local bond retirement by approximately 13c. This latter bill which would be a great savings to local taxpayers, grew out of efforts of Assemblyman Sheridan Hegland to stop the pyramiding of these taxes in "impoverished" districts.

Other items for Monday night's meeting include a report and approval of the summer recreation program and directors and the consideration of employment of Mrs. Anne Espe who was a victim of the school board's "inquisition" following the last election.

Skyline-Kempf Extension Readied For Traffic

Formal opening of Skyline Drive will be held June 29, Ed Singer, District Road Superintendent for the County of San Diego said this week. Ceremony will be held at Kempf Street near Broadway at 3:30 p.m. the day of the opening. Program to be announced later.

Decision to extend Skyline to Broadway came approximately 4 years ago when citizens of the community rebelled at making Cypress Street, with its two "ell" and two "ess" turns the main thorofare by which Lomita Village residents could get to Lemon Grove.

After considerable agitation on the part of local residents the County Road Department was able to get the extension of Skyline budgeted. The project has been waiting the completion of a subdivision through which the road runs, near the Lincoln-Kempf Street intersection.

Joe Mack, County Road Superintendent and Surveyor said that a study would be made soon after the new thorofare opened to determine whether or not stop signs should be changed or removed.

Already planned by the Lemon Grove Boosters Club is a ribbon cutting ceremony and a band concert. This activity will take place at 3:30 Saturday. Elements of the Mt. Miguel High School Band will furnish the music.

Boosters members point out that the Monterey Heights area will have a direct route into the business section of Lemon Grove for the first time.

L.G. Graduate Left Off List Due To New Address

One of our prettier graduates at Helix had her name omitted from the list we published last week and we want to make amends for it right now.

Mrs. Donald Cypret, whose wedding story we carried just an edition or two ago was not listed, although she graduated. Not only that, she completed her course in three years.

Reason her name was omitted is simple. As a single girl named Carole Lynne Upton, she was listed as living at 7939 Nichols.

As a bride she is listed as Mrs. Cypret, and her residence is given as 7619 Normal Street in La Mesa. We did not carry the list of La Mesa graduates therefore her name was left out. Mrs. Cypret was married April 6.

BOY SCOUTS DOUSE BLAZE

Being a Boy Scout is great! It gives a fellow a chance to be a big help in his community. This was proven Thursday evening here in Spring Valley.

Several boys of Troop 47 were having a Patrol meeting at the home of Scout Advisor L. B. Muzzy, 9841 Switzer Drive. During the meeting the boys noticed a fire blazing up on Central Avenue, between Olive and Kenwood. Curiosity got the best of them so they headed for the fire. Getting there they noticed it was a brush fire and getting out of control. One boy ran to the nearest house and borrowed a broom, another found a board and the others started throwing dirt on the flames. They had the fire partly out when the fire department arrived.

Fire Chief Don Clark said the boys are to be commended on their quick thinking. The Boy Scouts to whom the credit goes are: Lyle Van Norman, Wayne Gray.

'DOC' LAKE NAMED TO BOWLING GREEN U ALUMNI BOARD

Ivan "Doc" Lake, up at La Cresta Drive and Highland Blvd., Spring Valley, who does public relations for various area agencies, had quite an honor bestowed upon him recently; he was elected to the alumni board of his alma mater, the University of Bowling Green, at Bowling Green, Ohio.

"Doc" flew back to the Ohio town a couple of weeks ago to attend the board meeting and to talk over "old times" with some of his former school mates. The board was comprised of members from near and far, with Doc himself representing some of the "older" members.

Bowling Green University, which started as a normal college, was instituted in 1910, but wasn't officially opened until 1915, when its first buildings were completed. It now is a state university with some 4600 students, and teaches quite an extensive field of subjects.

Doc graduated from Bowling Green University in 1923 with a B.S. degree in education. It was his intention to become a teacher, but as it turned out, he got a job on the local newspaper as a reporter, and worked for the same firm for thirty years. He resigned his position when he came to California a few years ago.

Journalism must be in the Lake blood, for it was Doc's young son, Larry who won the trophy at the new Bancroft School for writing the best essay "What The New School Means To Me."

ICE SHOW TOP FAIR FEATURE

The summer entertainment season will begin June 28 when the 18th annual Southern California Exposition and San Diego County Fair begins its 10-day run at Del Mar.

Rhythm On Ice, an outstanding outdoor ice show, will be featured June 28 through July 1: Oriental Fantasy, an all-oriental stage production, will be the highlight of July 3-4, and Polack Bros. circus will take center stage on July 5-7.

Miroslava, national skating champion of Czechoslovakia from 1951 through 1954, will headline the ice show. The attractive blonde, who narrowly escaped being killed by border guards while escaping from the Iron Curtain in 1955, has been publicized in Sports Illustrated and Reader's Digest magazine.

Miroslava has become the most publicized skating star since Sonja Henie.

Chop Chop, the celebrated Charlie Chan of the night clubs, will be one of the feature attractions of Oriental Fantasy.

Animal acts, aerial artists and agile acrobats plus the buffooning Polack Bros. clowns will take over on the grandstand stage the final three days.

Other events include a national horse show, veteran car races, dancing under the stars, and a diaper derby.

Hundred Local Folk Expected To Attend 'Witness' Convention

Jehovah's witnesses in this area are making plans now to attend a 5-day convention, July 24-28, at Los Angeles' Wrigley Field. This announcement was made by Edgar A. Flinn, presiding minister of the local Lemon Grove-La Mesa-Spring Valley Congregations of Jehovah's witnesses. He further disclosed that Shield Halvajian, Convention Director, stated that a crowd of 35,000 witnesses is anticipated. Mr. Flinn expects his entire congregation of 100 persons to attend.

The Wrigley Field Assembly is one of a series of 15 such conventions to be held during July and August in the United States, Canada, Hawaii and the British Isles. Other convention locations have been arranged at Houston, Texas; Miami, Florida; Denver, Colorado; Seattle, Washington; Milwaukee, Wisconsin and Baltimore, Maryland; in addition to five in England and Scotland and three in Canada. Preparations for the Los Angeles Assembly are being handled at Convention Headquarters, 10615 S. Figueroa St., Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Flinn of this community are sharing in advance prepartions now under way at Convention Headquarters. Mr. Flinn has been assigned to take charge of one of the 25 major departments necessary to the successful operation of such a large convention.

WASHINGTON SUMMARY by ED KOTERBA

GOP WORRIES

Republican congressmen, already looking ahead to re-election next year, are gloomy about prospects for a GOP-controlled Congress.

Some are openly blaming the President's high-cost-of-living budget for this pessimism. . .

STASSEN RAPPED

Harold Stassen's stock is at a new low. The knuckle-rap he received from Secretary of State Dulles was given at the direct orders of President Eisenhower. The "peace secretary" was reprimanded for forwarding a set of American disarmament plans to the Russians before the President okayed them.

Incidentally, Stassen expects to leave Washington shortly . . . He bought a home in Valley Forge, Pa. It caries a heavy mortgage ($17,000).

YOUNG IKE'S JOB

Maj. John Eisenhower is doing so well as a White House assistant that word is he may be given a permanent assignment there after a stint at the Pentagon.

(He turned down Mamie's offer to move his family into the executive mansion while looking for a new house in town).

NOTES ABOUT FISH

The Interior Department has tested 4,346 chemical concoctions against the trout-destroying lamphrey in Lake Michigan and Lake Superior.

The department thinks it has finally found something to kill off the eels and not harm the fish. (In Lake Michigan, the annual trout harvest dropped from 6,500,000 pounds in 1946 to a mere 34 pounds in 1955 because of the voracious lamphrey).

The once-drought stricken lands of Texas are now being stocked with thousands of fish from five federal fish hatcheries, acording to word from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

PREDICTIONS

When Secretary of Defense Wilson leaves the Pentagon, he will most likely be succeeded by Wilfred J. McNeil, now an assistant secretary of renfense . . .

"Tighter" money conditions wil prevail this fall . . . This, Washington economists say, should be a sign of good busines activity.

Congress will quit for the year on or about August 16.

CAPITAL BRIEFS.

Soaring Satellite.

When the earth satellite was contracted for, estimated cost was $57 million . . . Cost now stands at $72 million and will soar yet higher before the "baby moon" is launched. . .

Turkey Cutbacks

Secretary of Agriculture Benson has ordered an immediate cutback in turkey hatchery output because of an expected stupendous "surplus" this year . . .

Atomic Carrier.

The Navy now expects to finish its first atom-powered aircraft carrier within three years . . . Just to get the work underway, the Navy is asking Congres for $292 million . . .

Wheat Exports.

Our wheat exports (now at a record 520 billion bushels a year) may be cut back sharply next year . . . Reason: Tremendous bumper crops are forecast for most of Europe . . .

Pentagon Bids.

Congress is cracking down on the questionable Pentagon practice of making purchases without advertising and calling for sealed bids . . .

Small Business.

A New Jersey congressman introduced a bill that would force the Defense Department to give one-fourth of its contracts to small business . . . Catch is, many small firms are not tooled to produce many of the complex items required by Defense.

DID YOU KNOW?

That the "middle class" folks pay the most taxes? Those with incomes under $10,000 pay 66 per cent of the federal income tax.

That the Navy is installing steel landing mats for motoring vacationers in North Carolina? Three miles (15,000 mats) are being laid on a sandy beach leading to the Cape Hatteras National Seashore resort.

☆ Over-cautious people are almost as worthless as those who are too careless.

WARDS VISIT WITH CONGRESSMAN UTT

Word comes from Washington, D. C. that Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ward, of 3580 Massachusettes Ave., Lemon Grove, dropped into the office of Representative James B. Utt last week for a chat with our Congressman.

The Wards were making a tour of the Capital, and have been sightseeing at historic Williamsburg, Yorktown and Jamestown, Va. They topped off their trip with an inspection of the White House.

More New Ones For Area

LEMON GROVE:

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Smith, 2135 El Prado, welcomed a boy weighing 8 pounds 9¼ ounces. This lad was the only male newcomer tagged "Lemon Grove. Maybe his fond parents will name him "Grover." Date of his arrival, June 1. "June Bugs" are smart. They wait til the weather gets warm but not hot.

SPRING VALLEY:

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Booth, 3265 Central, drew a boy, weight 6 pounds - 2 ounces on the hospital scales, which are strictly accurate and not loaned to any fisherman. This lad also arrived June 1.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Thank you for your wonderful cooperation with me as Publicity Chairman of the Golden Avenue P-TA this past year. I feel that our organization has received every courtesy possible in publishing the activities of the year. You may know that our Publicity Record Book received the award from Ninth District P-TA next to the highest, and without your help this would not have been posible.

Our motto for the year: "Our Investment in America—Strengthening Communities" has been fulfilled by the media of the press. Certainly Lemon Grove can be proud of its local newspaper and its interest in all schools.

Thank you very much.
Sincerely,
Mrs. Frank Armstrong
8230 Golden Avenue.

Dear Editor;

What's to become of this younger generation?

This rock and roll age is the most ridiculous thing in history! Such songs as "All Shook Up," "Rockabilly," etc., are the most inance tunes I have ever heard.

Why can't the teenagers of today be sensible—like we oldsters were. Ah, what fond memories we have of such beautiful songs as "Mairsy Doats," "Three Ittle Fishes," "23 Skidoo," "Barney Google," and "Yes, We Have No Bananas."

Sincerely,
"Nostalgia"

P.S. Please do not print my name in order that I might avoid bodily harm.

MORE SEWER TRUNKS FOR LOWER VALLEY

Plans and specifications for a $122,300 trunk sewer in the Spring Valley Sanitation District were ordered June 11 by the Board of Supervisors.

A 12-inch sewer will run through the La Presa area to the west line of property owned by Fred J. Hansen. Hansen has offered to pay the difference between the $94,000 cost of an 8-inch sewer and the 12-inch line in order to get a trunk sewer with a capacity adequate for his property. (This will save both the Sanitation District and Hansen money, and the installation at a later date of another line paralleling).

La Presa is interested, as that section has applied for sewer under the 1911 Act. La Presa also has started proceedings to get water. The 12-inch line will run directly to the new disposal plant.

Some 80 acres of Hansen's land is now included in the S.V. sewer installation, now being built.

PUPPETEERS TO GIVE FREE TICKETS

The Padre Puppeteers will open their summer series of marionette performances at the Puppet Theatre in Balboa Park July 8. There will be three shows each Sunday during July and August. Shows will be at 2:00, 3:00 and 4:00 p.m.

Again this year free tickets will be given to Boy and Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and Sunday School classes if they come in groups. Leaders of these organizations may phone Mrs. Hitchcock at HO 6-7128 for reservations.

The shows are part of the Fiesta del Pacifico. The Padre Puppeteers will also appear in Old Town with a special show for the Fiesta called "Mexican Monkeyshines." Dates for the Old Town performances will be announced later.

This year three new voices will be added to the Puppeteers; (from the Drury Lane Players) Bob Hudson, Mike Chacon (10 years old) and Mrs. Estelle Chacon. Twelve year old Elaine Engman, niece of Mrs. Hitchcock, has been with the Puppeteers since she was 4 years old. The Padre Puppeteers started 8 years ago.

11 PUPS GREET 'PAT' HOWARD AT HOMECOMING

Miss Patricia Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howard, 1456 Helix Drive, Spring Valley, came home last week by air after a year of post-graduate work at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore.

Miss Howard earned a scholarship at Johns Hopkins after graduating from Pomona last June where she got a B.A. in archaeology. That's the science of antiquities. We had to look that up too. D.H.

Speaking of graduations, and who isn't these days—Patricia Howard is the most graduating-est gal in these parts. Spring Valley Grammar from fourth grade on; then attendance at High, from which she graduated with honors. Next came Pomona College graduation and a year's post-graduate work at Johns Hopkins.

(Don't let this imposing list of schools and colleges scare you, boys. Patricia is just turned 23, and is a dandy fine-girl.

She says she will start out next week and look for a job of antiquities. (We had to look that up too. —D.H.)

Pat was welcomed to her Spring Valley home, by the Howard's thoroughbred short-haired German pointer, which gave birth to 11 pups a few days before Patricia arrived. These pups have not opened their eyes as yet, but we will have a picture of their mama, the eight boys and three girls and maybe we can persuade Pat to stand in as well. This will require at least two weeks' time. To get the picture, we mean.

Water Tour

days, and rain was depended on to furnish water. When a scarcity developed, as sometimes happened, hours were set for irrigating gardens and lawns, "if the hose was held in the hand". I was a collector for the original San Diego Water Company and read with others, the meters each month. Later, I went into the office and kept track of the production of the Mission Valley wells.

As I remember, three and a half million gallons for the whole city was a heavy daily draft, and pulled the reservoirs down.

With my early interest in water, I was pleased to be assigned to go on the bus tour sponsored by Mayor Dail.

After being briefed by Frank Smith, who had charge of the tour, we left the CWA headquarters at 2750 Fourth Avenue and headed for Chula Vista.

Roy Dodson, of City Water Department Manager Beermaker's staff, took over the microphone and gave us facts and figures. At Chula Vista we picked up an official of the California Water and Telephone Co., who supplied more figures on consumption and supply. Traversing Telegraph Canyon, so named from the pioneer telegraph line, we were taken to Lower Otay for a look at a small puddle, then on to Sweetwater Dam, which is in low supply.

The Navy has a couple of boats to test underwater instruments for sound detection.

There is enough water for that at this time, but getting scarcer.

First time I saw Sweetwater Dam was when I was ten years old. The Baptist Sunday School had a picnic—yep, I went to Baptist Sunday School for awhile.

The Sweetwater Dam was said to be the highest dam in the world at that time. It gave me pleasure to accept an iced can of Budweiser and go to the middle of the dam and drink it. The three or four ladies in the party took Cokes, but the men mostly chose beer.

The orchardists in the South Bay area have made good use of the water furnished. Orchards look fine and thrifty, but unless we collectively save 10 billion gallons this year to tide over this year's use, there will be a lot of dust flying.

From Sweetwater we went through Lakeside to El Capitan, the largest reservoir in the City's system.

It had very little water, because of scant rainfall last winter. All the usable water behind the dam has been salvaged, Carl Watters, engineer for Helix Irrigation District, was our guide and mentor.

We had a good driver tooling our S. D. Transit Chartered bus, with a sign "Don't Waste Water" on the front. The driver took us across the Dam, 165 feet high, and brought us half way back before stopping to let us out. An airplane circled high above, took pictures.

When I was 15 we moved to a place about a mile above the present dam, and my father lived there for 25 years. He was one of the first to realize the value of water that went down to the sea and started to try and salvage it. The flood of water that came down from the headwaters of San Diego River was sometimes appalling, and once my father and mother moved out overnight when rumors that Cuyamaca Dam had gone out. (It didn't).

The trip to El Capitan brought memories of my boyhood, the many times I had ridden or driven the nine miles to Lakeside. It was pleasant, too, to sit back in the seat and just watch the scenery.

When we got back to Lakeside, Carl Watters left us and we took the road at San Vincenti Reservoir, which we viewed from the top of the hill. The road built to replaced the Mussey Grade is well engineered, and we hit it in high all the way up.

San Vincene Reservoir is pretty well filled, is the end of the present Aqueduct, and is all Colorado River water.

A gentleman came in before we were seated and asked "how many prefer fish?" but nobody did. The waitresses got busy serving samples of the chef's skill.

After lunch we had a sort of "round table", with Frank Smith acting as moderator. One reporter from South Bay district wanted to know about taxes, and another asked about how much more Colorado River water would be available. Neither question was answered that I heard.

We finally embarked in the bus after making sure that Clark Irvine, publisher of the Alpine Sun, America's Tiniest Newspaper" was aboard, (He was unavoidably detained for a few minutes.)

Leaving Escondido we passed Lake Hodges, mostly a dry lake, with nothing but sand under the bridge. Near the dam some water was left, but it will be some time before the spill-way is used.

Rancho Santa Fe was the next object of interest. Water is scarce there, too.

From Rancho Santa Fe and Solana Beach we sped down the Highway, with never a stop 'til we reached the CWA building and thanked Frank Smith for a very pleasant trip.

The serious shortage of water in this County is something to be alarmed about. Unless the bonds are voted on July 9 for a second aqueduct, we will be in a serious plight, for without the additional pipeline, we won't have any water to waste.

Personally, I think the authorities should take steps to save water now, so we'll have some for next year.

It will be necessary to cut down on car washing and lawn sprinkling. Time to save water is from now on—save it by not using it.

And by all means, vote for the bonds on July 9. Without water we are lost. D.H.

35 PIECE BAND TO PLAY AT EL MONTE PARK

An old fashioned band concert will be given at El Monte Park Sunday from 1:30 to 3 p.m. The 35 piece musical aggregation is paid for by county funds and is offered in the interest of county-city recreation by the County Department of Parks and Beaches.

Local Contractor Wins Law Library Award

C. S. (Carl) Williams, local contractor, living on Rogers Rd., Spring Valley, and with offices at 7662 Broadway, Lemon Grove, last week was awarded the contract to build the new Law Library for the county, at the corner of Front and C Streets, San Diego, across the street from the Court House. Williams' bid was $699,700, just $175 below that of his nearest competitor ($699,875).

The building which will be owned by the Board of Retirement of San Diego County, will be partly built in five stories, an will have an approximate space of 30,000 square feet.

Williams said last Friday that providing he receives the award soon, construction should begin about June 24. It will take about nine months to complete. Sam Hamill, Frank Hope, George Lykos and Richard George Wheeler, architects, together with R. L. Freeland, engineer, are assigned to the job. They are the same group who are designing the new Court House and jail facilities.

C. S. Williams with his family has lived in the Spring Valley area about six years. He has been 23 years in the construction business, and has a B.S.-C. E. degree from the John Brown University in Arkansas.

Among the many buildings in San Diego which have been constructed under Mr. Williams' supervision, are : Oceanside Junior College Administration and Library buildings, Union Oil Company warehouse, Fletcher Hills School addition, Casa Manana Hotel (La Jolla) addition, Alexander Hamilton School addition, $½ million high school addition at El Centro, $1 million Navy project work, and various other smaller jobs.

REC. AID PROMISED YOUTH GROUP

The Youth Control Board Tuesday night heard Robert J. Buckner a Lemon Grove resident who is a member of the County Parks and Beaches Department report that his department would have a recreational facility set up "within days" if the county purchased the 3½ acre proposed playground area at Washington and Mt. Vernon Streets.

The Lemon Grove Swimming Pool Association presently has an option to purchase the land. It would round out a seven acre play area when and if it is converted to recreational use.

The county has indicated that funds may be budgeted for that purpose. Consideration is also being given to erecting a youth activity building on the site.

Approximately ten members present of the 23 groups belonging to the Board voted to protest granting liquor licenses to firms adjacent youth facilities.

FASTER TRIALS SEEN IN COURT EXPANSION

An amended bill providing for three additional S. D. Superior Court Departments has passed the legislature and is on Gov. Knight's desk Also approved was an additional Municipal Court, (probably to handle traffic cases exclusively) which will raise the number of Superior Court Departments to 13 and Municipal Courts to nine.

The Board of Supervisors ruled that three more departments in Superior Courts would be enough to take up the slack. Besides, that number will occupy all space available at this time.

The Senate Finance Committee has killed a bill which would increase the salaries of superior and municipal judges.

'Citizenship' Certificates Found In Time To Be Awarded

Last week Vista La Mesa School held an awards session, with all 493 pupils assembled in the "Cafetorium" to congratulate the winners of certificates of good citizenship and other activities.

First on the program was the awarding by the Daughters of American Revolution (D.A.R.) of a gold medal to one of Vista La Mesa's fifth grade scholars, Mary Bouterious, for her essay on Thomas Jefferson.

The D. A. R. officers offer awards each year for competitions on American statesmen. There were three other essays on Thomas Jefferson submitted, and required considerable study for the committee to select - what was in their opinion - the best.

Betty Seymour Robinson made the presentation of the gold medal, spoke briefly of the interest the D.A.R., a National organization, took in keeping the teention of young people on the work of our forefathers, who founded the Republic, accomplished.

Other awards by the National Chapter of D.A.R. were made to Carol Foster, 6th grade Lemon Grove Junior High, who got a first; second award to Mike Cosby, 6th grade Junior High. Mike wrote an essay on Eli Whitney, stressing the importance to America of his invention of the Cotton Gin.

Honorable mention awards went to Manuel Padilla, 5th grade, Golden Ave., School; Bonnie Rether, Phyllis Lopez, 7th grade, L. G. Junior High and Rosette Fegan, St. John of the Cross School.

There were 175 compositions read and judged in the competition.

Then followed presentation by Principal Clarence Allen of certificates of merit awarded to Vista La Mesa students.

Gail Sims, secretary-treasurer, was handed the certificates and passed them to the various winners as they mounted the platform as their names were called. The young students, with girls in the majority, lined up along the back wall and were applauded in groups.

Citizenship awards really mean something earned. Students marks must be at or above grade level, must receive all "E" but two in scholarship.

Special awards were given by California Highway Patrol and Lemon Grove Fire Department.

The certificates were all made out on Friday before and in some way were misplaced and could not be located, and had to be done over, which kept Marion Batchelder busy for an hour before 9:15, time originally set for the "awarding."

While waiting for the postponed time to arrive, Mr. Allen invited me to have a cup of coffee, took me to the cafeteria kitchen, where three ladies in crisp white uniforms were preparing lunch. The coffee-maker knows her stuff, and puts plenty of the ground-up berries in the percolator. Best coffee we had in months.

If I were ten again and had my "druthers," I think I'd pick Vista La Mesa School. —D.H.

Mrs. Houk Succumbs

Services were held Monday at Greenwood Mortuary for Mrs. C. V. Marybelle Houk of 9250 La Mar Street, Spring Valley, who passed away at her home Thursday at 1:15 a.m. She had been ill for several months. Entombment was in Greenwood Mausoleum.

Survivors are her husband Claude, two sons; Theodore of San Diego and Denzil of La Mesa; a sister and a brother, and 2 grandchildren.

Born in Missouri, Mrs. Houk and family lived in the Spring Valley area about 14 years. She was a member of the Wesslyn Methodist Church, the Spring Valley Women's Club, the La Mesa Royal Neighbors, the Spring Valley Community Chest and the Red Cross. She and her husband were constant attendants at the Missouri picnics that used to be held in Spring Valley.

Mrs. Houk was especially well known for her beautiful handwork sewing, crocheting and other needle work. She was always available when someone was in need, and spent much of her time helping in the Economy Shop at Bancroft and Golf Drives, under the sponsorship of the Spring Valley Welfare Department.

SV Girl Weds L.G. Man

Miss Johnny Rankin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rankin, 2040 Helix Street, Spring Valley, became the bride of William C. Bloom, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bloom earlier this month in a Nevada wedding.

The couple was married at the Little White Chapel in Las Vegas June 8. Mr. and Mrs. J. Brewer, the bride's sister, and her husband were witnesses.

☆ Dwight D. Eisenhouwer:
"You don't promote the cause of peace by talking only with people with whom you agree."

Regina Stadler Named To Head Quill And Scroll

Recent elections for the Helix High School organization of Quill and Scroll resulted in the following: Regina Stadler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Stadler, of 7219 Blackton Drive, Lemon Grove, will serve as president.

The Quill and Scroll is an international organization to which students working on the school annual or the Highland Fling, the school newspaper, may belong.

Clovis Hill is Quill and Scroll adviser.

SERMON CONTRASTS ATOMIC AND SPIRITUAL FORCE

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" This challenging question is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in the Christian Science churches on Sunday.

A passage from the Bible relates Matthew's account of Jesus' stilling the tempest, "His disciples came to Him, and awoke Him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish . . . Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm" (8:25, 26).

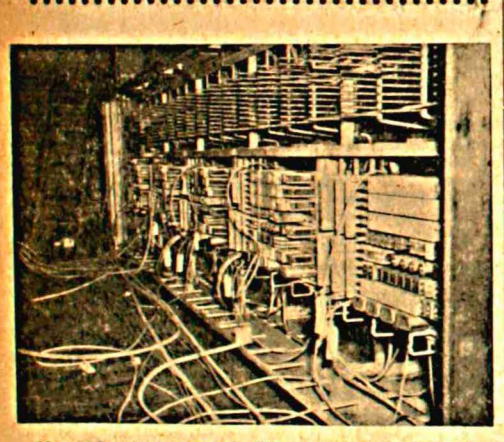

The Golden Text is from John's Gospel (1:1, 3), "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. . . All things were made by Him; and without Him was not anything made that was made."

McQueens Back, Loaded With Trout

William "Mac" McQueen and his wife, Carmen have returned from their annual fishing vacation and fishing was good. They've got a freezer loaded with rainbow trout to prove it.

During their three week's trip to the High Sierras district they visited Lake Alamor, Mt. Lassen National Park, Shasta Dam and Lake Crowley.

During his absence a remodeling job on this restaurant, the Avalon Cafe, took place. New side ventilators and a new circulating fan was installed. The front was remodeled and modernized by installation of larger windows.

The restaurant is at the corner of Imperial and Golden across the street on the same side of Imperial as the First National Bank.

McCLURE

The scholarship grants one to four years tuition at an accredited engineering college. McClure has not indicated where he will study.

Water Tax Soon Due

Approximately 3,000 property owners in the Helix Irrigation District are being reminded that the second tax installment payments are due and payable on about 5,000 parcels, Carl Mehl, District collector announced.

The tax reminder, being mailed as an extra courtesy, advises that taxes will become delinquent after June 24 unless paid before that time. Mehl said that penalties and additional costs will be saved if the taxes are paid before June 24.

Mehl said that the taxes due at the present time amount to $65,421.77, and involve approximately one-sixth of the parcels in the districts.

The District directors decided to call for bids for the publication of the delinquent tax list this year. In the past four years the job has been given to each of the legal papers in the district in turn but the board decided that some tax savings might result from competitive bidding.

Mrs. Eskridge announced that her students will dance at the Del Mar Fair on "Spring Valley Day," June 28.

Water Rate Hike Seen As Conservation Measure

One way to "Nip the Drip" and "Don't Waste Water" campaign a worth-while measure has been located by Ramona, Fallbrookk and Vista Irrigation Districts. They have upped the price to their customers substantially and are hoping to reduce consumption materially.

Fallbrook was the first to cut waste at the pockets.

Ramona has announced a raise to go into effect June 26.

William K. Hanigan, president, said the rate for water used after the first 2,000 cubic feet will be increased from 15 cents per 100 cubic feet to 20 cents. The remainder of the rate scale will be unchanged. The minimum rate is $3.50 for the first 1,000 cubic feet of water used and 25 cents for each 100 cubic feet for the next 1,000.

Ramona Municipal District directors have set $1,995,000 as the amount of a bond issue to finance construction of a water distribution system, according to James W. Smith, president.

July 23 has been set for a bond election. Voters will also determine whether the district shall annex to the County Water Authority. Approval of the annexation and the bond issue will assure the district receiving Colorado River Water, if any is left after Arizona gets her share.

Ramona residents in the 10,000 acre district now get their water from wells, with the water level steadily going down and deepening of said wells costing more and more.

Vista is another district that has upped the water rates substantially. An across-the-board increase in irrigation and domestic rates which will nearly double water bills for domestic users was voted June 11 by directors of V. I. D.

Plenty of yelps are expected to be heard when August water bills are rendered.

The new rates in Vista include a monthly $2 meter charge, for all users, incresaing the charge from $1 for irrigation users and $1.50 for combination irrigation and domestic use. Domestic users are now paying the $2 charge.

In addition, all types of users will pay 20 cents for each 100 cubic feet for the first 2,000 cubic feet, doubling the cost for domestic users. After 2,000 cubic feet, the rate will be 8 cents for each 100 cubic feet instead of 7 cents.

The increase in rates will produce approximately $106,000 for the district in the next six months and is expected to offset a deficiency in the 1957 budget caused by a new well program and a million dollar pipeline replacement project started last year.

The new rates will remain in effect until the first meeting of directors in February, 1958, when said rates will be reviewed.

Lemon Grove area got a raise in water rates about a year ago and there was some yelping, but not too much. No increase in rates is expected at this time, but "Don't Waste Water - Nip the Drip" is still the watchword.

HOMETOWN PAGEANT TO GO TO THE BOARDS

The "Spring Valley" pageant, written and produced by Betty Seymour Robinson, is scheduled to be presented again on July 21, according to Mrs. Robinson. Rehearsals will begin the last of this month, with as many of the original cast as possible.

The "Spring Valley' pageant was presented last Oct. during the centennial of the old adobe building. The committee of the Fiesta Del Pacifico requested that the pageant be presented during "Fiesta" time.

At the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors, it was decided not to have a barbecue this year, because of the extra water being a strain on the septic tank. The board decided that no more large dinners of any kind will be held in the building until the sewers are hooked up.
